

“One of Guernseys most popular natural features...the beach”

Copyright States of Guernsey

Just 5 minutes walk from the campsite are the safe and sandy bays of Port Grat and Grande Havre. A short drive away are the golf-course, horse riding stables and Leisure Centre.

From the harbour...

...in the grounds of a 17th Century Guernsey Home.

CAMP SITE

Surrounded by many reminders of Guernsey's rich history, Le Vaugrat Campsite has for many years provided hundreds of returning visitors with all those amenities that make a comfortable and memorable holiday. Outbuildings have been thoughtfully converted into a shop, T.V. room, take-away food service area and Coffee Barn. The site is flat and well drained and serviced by all the conveniences of home - toilets, showers, washing, drying and ironing facilities ~ and plenty of safe space for children's play. Several fully-equipped tents, each sleeping up to 6 persons are available for hire, (minimum 2 persons per tent).

The farmhouse is home to the Lainé family, who for many years have carefully and caringly managed their family camping business.

Entouré de maints témoignages de la riche histoire de Guernsey, le terrain de camping Le Vaugrat a depuis de nombreuses années offert à des centaines de visiteurs réguliers tous les aménagements nécessaires à des vacances confortables et inoubliables. Les dépendances ont été intelligemment aménagées en une superette, une salle de télévision, un service de plats à emporter et une "Coffee Barn". Le terrain est plat et bien drainé et possède tous les équipements modernes (toilettes, douches, lavomatique et installations de repassage) et une grande aire où les enfants peuvent jouer en toute sécurité. Il y a également plusieurs tentes de 6 personnes entièrement équipées à louer (minimum 2 personnes par tente).

La ferme appartient à la famille Lainé qui, depuis de nombreuses années, gèrent leur terrain de camping avec grand dévouement.
